

EL PASO LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

WHAT IS A SCHOOL COMPACT?

A school parent & family compact is an agreement between the school and the families to promote the shared vision of the EL Paso Leadership Academy. Parent & family involvement means the participation of guardians in a regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities include:

- Partnering in the education of scholars, encouraging and challenging children to meet their full potential.
- Promoting a well-balanced and appropriate curriculum for all students.
- Supporting a safe and structured environment, conducive to student learning.
- Support student learning.
- Integrating technology on a school- wide basis.
- Striving for college readiness and completion
